Dear Sir—I take pleasure in saying that the glasses made for me, for both far-seeing and reading, by Dr. Week, now under engagement with you, give perfect satisfaction, correcting entirely those imperfections of vision arising from a complicated form of astigmatism from which I have been suffering for a number of years. I have worn glasses made by celebrated opticians of other cities, but find that these give better results than any heretofore worn, and I commend Dr. Week with great confidence to all who experience any trouble with their eyes. Yours truly,
